

NIKKO DAY TOUR

Today you will join Seat-in-coach tour to visit Nikko. Tour will depart from Shinjuku JR Station Visit Nikko Toshogu, one of the most important shrines in Japan and a UNESCO World Heritage site, which is the final resting place of Tokugawa Ieyasu, the founder of the Tokugawa Shogunate that ruled Japan for over 250 years until 1868, known as the Edo Period. Next you will pass through the Iroha Slope, famous for its 48 sharp turns along its route, and is portrayed in the animation "Initial D". The road is very popular for its autumn leaves in the fall. At 12:30PM, you will arrive at the Kegon Waterfall. This almost 100-meter-tall waterfall is the most famous of Nikko's many beautiful waterfalls. At 2:00PM, your tour will be separated into two groups, you can choose either to walk along Lake Chuzenji, or to experience the Nikko hot spring. On the way back to Tokyo you will stop by the Onihei Edo service area, which is the most interesting service area with edo style design and traditional souvenirs. At 6:00PM, you will be dropped back at the Shinjuku.
