

Okinawa Delights

Yanbaru – Kin Town - Naha

Okinawa offers diverse eco tours that highlight its natural beauty and cultural heritage through sustainable and educational experiences. Explore the northern Yanbaru UNESCO World Heritage Site with its rich biodiversity, visit Kin Town for bird watching, and discover Naha's attractions from Shurijo Castle to the Ryukyu Glass Village. From forest treks to marine adventures, Okinawa delivers a meaningful and eco-friendly travel experience.

Day 1 Naha Airport - Yanbaru

Meal: L/D

This morning arrives in Naha Airport, you are met and transferred to Nago City. Lunch will be served at 100-year-old House, enjoy the well-known Okinawa style pork Agu meal set. We then go to the world heritage site – Nakijin Castle; as a former gusuku (Ryukyuan castle or fortress) dating back to the 13th century, Nakijin Castle offers visitors a glimpse into the rich history of the Ryukyu Kingdom and stunning views of the surrounding landscape. We also walk around Kijoka village with a Sherpa (local tour guide), visit Bashofu Center, Kijoka community store. Check in at your hotel – Okuma Private Beach & Resort or similar.

Day 2 Yanbaru – Kin Town

Meal: B/L

After breakfast we depart for Kin Town. Visit Shinkaichi, a town in front of a US military base; then followed by Sake brewery tour of Kin Limestone Cave, Japan's first old sake brewery. We will also visit Ukka Gaa Spring, "spring of the deep valley," is a traditional water source for the local community and holds historical importance in the region. Then will go to Taro field and do bird's watching. Lunch served at Café Chouraku then continue our journey south and stay overnight at Absostay, you could enjoy the Japanese onsen at this hotel.

Day 3 Kin Town – Naha

Meal: B

This morning, we will drive to Naha. Today's visit will be Suri Castle, which was the political, diplomatic, and cultural heart of the Ryukyu Kingdom. Influenced by the kingdom's close trade ties with China, its architecture and stonework beautifully blend Chinese and Japanese styles. Then onto Naha City First Makishi public market, walking tour of the Tsuboya area, the epicentre of Okinawa's pottery traditions. It is also a living testament to Okinawa's cultural heritage and artistic expression. Whether you're an enthusiast of ceramics or simply curious about Okinawan traditions, a visit to Tsuboya Yachimun Street promises a deep dive into the island's rich pottery traditions and artistic legacy.

Day 4 Naha City – Free Day

Meal: B

Enjoy your free time in Naha, you could explore more of Naha city at your own pace.

Day 5 Departure

Meal: B

Today is at leisure; subject to hotel check out policy. In time transferred to the airport for your flight bound for next destination.

