

The Best of Vietnam & Cambodia

16 days tour to Saigon (HCMC), Da Nang, Hoi An, Ha Long Bay Cruise, Hanoi, Siem Reap & Phnom Penh

Discover the historic cities, verdant agriculture, and glittering bays of Vietnam and be captivated by the warmth of the people you meet. Uncover the youthful excitement of Saigon, explore beautiful Mekong Delta; learn about the Cu Chi tunnels, shop at the living museum city of Hoi An; wander around world famous Golden Bridge; discover the UNESCO site in Hue; float across Halong Bay on boat and enjoy the unique pedicab ride in the old quarter in Hanoi. Then explore the UNESCO heritage of Angkor Wat and the unique floating village on the Tonle Sap Lake in Siem Reap, followed by visit to Phnom Penh, the largest city in Cambodia.

Day 1 Arrival HCMC (Saigon)
Today arrive in Ho Chi Minh City, formally called Saigon, the economic and commercial center of Vietnam. Met and transferred to hotel. The rest of the day remains free. Overnight in HCMC.

Day 2 Ho Chi Minh City Meal: B/L
This morning, we head to Cu Chi, 70km north of Saigon, which is famous for its 200-kilometre-long tunnels, and it was the base for the Viet Cong during the Vietnam War. After lunch, return to Ho Chi Minh City, the war theme continues with photo stop at the Independence Palace and visit to the War Remnant Museum and wandering around Cho Ben Thanh Markets.

Day 3 Mekong Delta Meal: B/L
Enjoy a full-day excursion to My Tho, 75km south of Saigon, a peaceful town on the bank of the Mekong River. The tour comprises a cruise on the Mekong River, a visit to orchards and local homes, a sampan ride on palm-shaded creeks, a taste of seasonal fruit & honey tea and a performance of traditional southern singing. Lunch of Mekong specialties is arranged.

Day 4 Ho Chi Minh City - Hoi An
Meal: B/L
Transfer to the airport for our flight to Da Nang. Upon arrival, we visit World famous floating Golden Bridge that is seemingly held up by a pair of giant stone hands. Take in panoramic views of Da Nang from this impressive Bridge then followed by riding cable car – one of the longest in the world – over the lush Ba Na Forest. Continue our drive to Hoi An, the most charming town in Vietnam. Here we stay 3 nights.

Day 5 Hoi An Meal: B/L
Today your guide will show you the ancient town. Hoi An, is so called a 'living Museum City' because of its well-kept original historical buildings and ancient backstreets. Visit one of the three city's oldest homes, each built over 200 years ago and still occupied by descendants of the families that originally built them. We then tour to the Chinese Assembly Hall, followed by a one hour cruise along the river. Later on we visit to the unique Japanese Bridge; afterwards we take one hour cruise along Thu the Bon River. Lunch is served at a local restaurant by the river.

Day 6 Hoi An Meal: B
Today is at leisure, enjoy this charming small town.

Optional day tour to Hue with lunch:
Travel to Hue via Hai Van Pass, with views of Lang Co Lagoon, the coast and mountains. Explore the UNESCO-listed

Citadel, including the Forbidden Purple City, and visit the Hue Royal Antiques Museum to see royal treasures. Board at Toa Kham for a one-hour sunset cruise along the Perfume River before returning to Hoi An. The drive to Hue takes around three hours.

Day 7 Hoi An – Hanoi Meal: B

Enjoy a free morning. At noon, transfer to the airport for your flight to Hanoi, Vietnam's capital. On arrival, transfer to your hotel. The city is known for its tree-lined streets and centuries-old temples.

Day 8 Hanoi Meal: B/L

We visit Tran Quoc pagoda, a Buddhist temple set on a West Lake peninsula; then continue to the Ho Chi Minh complex and the One Pillar pagoda. Explore Confucian heritage at the 11th-century Temple of Literature, where you'll find a prime example of traditional Vietnamese architecture, and the site of Vietnam's first university. Afternoon, pay a visit to the Hoa Lo Prison, nicknamed Hanoi Hilton by American pilots during the Vietnam War. This notorious prison was used by French Colonists for political prisoners until the mid-1950s. After that, visit Vietnam Museum of Ethnology to learn about the 54 cultural groups living in Vietnam. Then take the 1-hour cyclo tour around the old quarter before getting back to your hotel.

Day 9 Ha Long Bay Cruise Meal: B/L/D

This morning, we travel by road with cruise shuttle bus through the Red River Delta to the beautiful Ha Long Bay. The scenic drive will pass through rural landscapes before arriving at this World Heritage site, recognised by UNESCO in 1994. Upon arrival board the deluxe Junk Boat where you will enjoy a welcome drink and freshly caught seafood lunch whilst sailing out of the bay passing amazing, shaped mountains. You will also visit some magical grottoes and relax in the best scenic beauty Vietnam has to offer. You could also do Kayaking or local boat rowing, attend a morning Tai chi class or cooking demonstration, Squid Fishing, or a movie show. Overnight on the cruise.

Day 10 Ha Long Bay - Hanoi Meal: B/L

This morning start with optional early morning Tai Chi class then continue our visit to some of the caves or a pearl farm in Ha Long Bay. After early lunch served on board, you are transferred back to Hanoi with cruise shuttle bus.

Overnight in Hanoi.

Day 11 Hanoi - Siem Reap Meal: B

This morning is at leisure. In time you are transferred to the airport for your flight to Siem Reap. Upon arrival Siem Reap Airport, met & greet by our professional guide; then transfer to hotel for check-in. Overnight at hotel in Siem Reap.

Day 12 Siem Reap Meal: B/L/D

Morning, transfer to the South Gate of Angkor Thom to visit the Bayon Temple, located at the heart of Angkor Thom City. This temple is famous for its 216 giant carved faces on 54 towers, each with a unique and enigmatic smile, watching over every direction. After lunch, visit the renowned Angkor Wat Temple and its surrounding sites, one of the most iconic temples in the Angkor complex. As the largest temple complex in the world, it stands as a stunning example of both Hindu and Buddhist art and architecture. Later, enjoy the sunset from the top of Pre Rup Temple. In the evening, savor dinner at a local restaurant while watching a traditional Apsara dance performance. Return to your hotel in Siem Reap for an overnight stay.

Day 13 Siem Reap Meal: B/L

This morning, visit Kbal Spean, also known as the "River of a Thousand Lingas," famous for its intricately carved riverbed and scenic waterfall, nestled deep within the jungle northeast of Angkor. Next, stop at Banteay Srei, a temple made of pink sandstone. Though one of the smallest temples, it is considered one of the most beautiful, with its intricate and deep carvings, showcasing the finest examples of Khmer art. Built in 967 AD by a guru to King Jayavarman V, the temple's carvings and bas-reliefs remain remarkably well-preserved, despite being over a millennium old. After lunch, continue your journey to Phnom Krom village and Tonle Sap Lake. Along the way, visit a lotus farm, followed by a boat ride through the floating village on Tonle Sap Lake. Known as Cambodia's "Great Lake," Tonle Sap is one of the world's most unique geographical and ecological wonders, boasting extraordinary biodiversity and hydrological importance.

Day 14 Siem Reap - Phnom Penh Meal: B

Visit Banteay Kdei, royal pool of Sras Srang and the overgrown Temple of Ta Prohm. Unlike most of the temples of Angkor, Ta Prohm has been largely left to the clutches of the living jungle which shows the dynamic interaction between nature and man-made art. After lunch (at your own expenses), you are transferred to Siem Reap international airport for your flight to Phnom Penh. Upon arrival you will be welcomed by local guide and transfer to hotel for check in. Overnight at hotel in Phnom Penh.

Day 15 Phnom Penh Meal: B/L

In the morning visit the Royal Palace - Silver Pagoda, home to the Cambodian royal family and a symbol of the nation. Seeing the Napoleon III Pavilion made from iron, a gift from the French emperor in the 19th century and continue to the Silver Pagoda, named after the 5000 silver tiles covering the floor, each weighing 1kg. Then visit the National Museum, home to the world's finest collection of sculpture from the Angkor period. Afternoon visit the Genocide Museum "Tuol Sleng", which is a former high school used as the notorious Security Prison 21 (S-21) and learn about Cambodia's tumultuous past before going to the Killing Field "Cheoung Ek". Stop at Russian Market for a quick shopping for local handicraft products.

Day 16 Phnom Penh Departure Meal: B

This morning is at leisure.

Check out according to the hotel's policy, then transfer to the airport in time for your homebound flight.
